1	6/2/2025	Establishment of an intern program designed to assist members of the community	The SEU hosted an intern from University of Nebraska (Kearney) in Summer 2025, supervised by the Operations Manager. The intern received in-depth knowledge regarding radio operations, such as how to voice track, using the Nexgen automation system with radio stations, setting up a remote or sportscast, as well as logging commercials. Other operations of the stations were also reviewed, such as news and sports writing, and holding on-air interviews and live broadcasts. The internship spanned two months, allowing the intern to work a couple of days each week to learn the ins and outs of the radio industry.	1	Operations Manager
2	11/18/2025	Provision of training to management	On November 18, 2025 the SEU's Sales Manager participated in a training titled "Reading Between the Lines: What Diversity Means Today," which covered topics such as a clearer understanding of what diversity looks like now and strategies leaders can use to intentionally support inclusivity. The training also addressed tools to strengthen communication, collaboration and trust, as well as ways to build a more cohesive and high-performing team environment.	1	Sales Manager
